

City of Margate Police Department

ACCREDITED LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY

MEMORANDUM

TO: Jonathan Shaw, Chief of Police

FROM: Ryan McCarthy, Lieutenant RM

DATE: September 16, 2021

SUBJECT: Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act – Donation

In accordance with the Florida Contraband Act, the Margate Police Department is required to expend or donate no less than twenty-five percent of the fiscal years total collection of state forfeiture funds. To meet this requirement, approximately $7,000.00 must be donated to charitable organizations within the guidelines of Florida Statute 932.7055.

We are requesting $3,000.00 be donated to the Broward Victim's Rights Coalition (BVRC) which is a non-profit organization and is a permissible entity to receive such donated funds. The BVRC has worked closely with the Margate Police Department throughout the years by assisting victims.

The BVRC directly assists the Margate Police Department by providing Margate victims financial assistance when no other funds are available. The coalition is the only type of urgent funding available to victims. This funding is utilized to provide emergency shelter and victim service programs for domestic violence victims and their families.

Attached is the requisite W-9 form and back up information regarding the Broward Victim's Rights Coalition.

I concur with this donation and certify that this request complies with the requirements of Florida State Statute 932.7055 (5). I request that the City Commission appropriate these funds for its intended purpose to the Broward Victim's Rights Coalition.

Chief Jonathan Shaw J. Shaw 09/16/21

Who We Are...

The Broward Victims Rights Coalition was established by Victim Service Professionals in May 1991. We are made up of Service Providers, Businesses, Law Enforcement Professionals and Various State, Federal and Local Administrators, and victims of crime, as well. We are all dedicated to helping the lives of victims of crime.

What We Do...

The coalition was established in 1991 in order to network with other victim service providers, enhance public awareness about rights and needs of victims, encourage participation of citizens in Victim Service programs, serve as a source of technical support for victim related workshops and advocate on behalf of crime victims.

Why Join?...

Crime affects victims, their families and loved ones, physically, financially, and emotionally. Membership enables one to join with others to assist crime victims and promote greater public awareness about crime victims and their needs.

Who Should Join...

- Victims of Crime
- Service Providers such as victim advocates, domestic violence and sexual assault crisis counselors and child advocates
- Businesses and corporations concerned about the aftermath of crime or their employees
- Law Enforcement (local, state and federal)
- Criminal Justice Managers
- Court Administration
- Self-Help Organizations such as Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD), and Parents of Murdered Children (POMC)
- School Board Administration
- Individuals concerned about victim rights
- Funeral Home Directors
- Psychologists and Mental Health Counselors

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
