MAYOR TOMMY RUZZANO introduced Interim Chief of Police (CoP), Palma who replaced recently retired CoP Galaska. He also showcased Fire Chief Lorenzo.

Discussion ensued on the length of service the respective Chiefs have served with the City and also highlighted the International Day Festival.

Meeting went into Recess.

Meeting Reconvened.

2) PUBLIC DISCUSSION

MAYOR TOMMY RUZZANO explained the protocol for this Item.

JULIE JONES thanked Commissioner Arserio for his forthcoming Snuggle Buddy event and asked him to accept her teddy bears for the same.

COMMISSIONER ARSERIO thanked Ms. Jones for her donation.

DONNA L. FELLOWS, 6108 NW 9TH COURT (via Zoom) thanked Mayor Ruzzano for attending the bowling event. She referenced supporting Margate bowlers and also other youth players of Broward County and encouraged the City Commissioners to attend future events.

LAUREN BERACHA, 6950 NW 14TH PLACE (via Zoom) expressed her concerns about the speeding on Margate Boulevard. She discussed sightings of early election signs and highlighted that the MAC meeting was held on the first Monday of every month.

VICE MAYOR ARLENE R. SCHWARTZ provided further details on the MAC meeting.

3) COMMISSION COMMENTS

COMMISSIONER JOANNE SIMONE discussed and thanked the Finance Department for a forthcoming award that they were expected to receive and congratulated Interim CoP Palma. She highlighted that the state budget received an additional $2,000,000 to fund My Safe Florida Home which was expected to re-open for applicants on July 1st. The program provided free hurricane inspections and offered grants for hurricane hardening.

VICE MAYOR SCHWARTZ explained that the program offered $2 for every $1 spent by the resident.

COMMISSIONER SIMONE provided an update on the City's partnership with Red Cross where they distributed and installed smoke alarms and she thanked the Fire Department for their assistance. She highlighted future events at Northwest Focal Point Senior Center and also the Margate's Tree Giveaway. She requested a change of the hiring and firing the two positions and that they should be removed from the City Commission's remit which she did not support back in 2018. She explained that the City Manager was a professional administrator who had hiring and firing experience and that those positions required a higher level of human resource (HR) skills. She believed that it would be a major stumbling block for the City Commission to hire a new Fire Chief as she did not think they would want to answer to five City Commissioners and stated that Sunrise was the only other city to use that initiative. She said that embarrassment could have been prevented with the former CoP Galaska if City Manager Curtis handled the hiring and the firing and she continued to discuss the same. She asked for CONSENSUS from the City Commission to put this back on the ballot for the residents to reconsider. She was previously unaware of the oral exams for promotions and recommended that it needed to be changed and questioned whether the City's strategic plans for Margate aligned with the Police Department's priorities. She read a handbook which was written by a former CoP on development and power management to better equip and educate her. She also learned and was better educated after she watched interviews from different cities and states. She indicated that this process created an extra layer that did not need to be there. She informed that if there was no CONSENSUS, then for the next CoP, she suggested having an open candidate forum or Zoom call where there would be a moderator who collated questions from the City Commissions as well as the community in front of an audience and televised which she indicated would bring more transparency.

COMMISSIONER ARSERIO hoped to see everyone attend the Snuggle Buddy drive this Saturday. He appreciated Commissioner Simone sharing her ideas pertaining to the two positions but disagreed with the ballot. He complimented her research pertaining to watching the interviews and said that he did not oppose an open forum but only for the top three finalists. His preference would be to conduct personal interviews in a private setting where he envisaged creating his own interview panel where he would enlist the assistance of a high ranking officer, a road patrol officer and maybe a CoP or Assistant CoP from another City to sit down with him and do some of these questions as he did not know all the intricacies of the day to day settings.

VICE MAYOR SCHWARTZ stated that she had never gone to a CoP and asked them to do anything and vice versa. She believed that the two former CoPs would still be here if the City Commission did not ask a question or request that an investigation be conducted. She said that she had no political stake and understood after 17 years in administration that she knew the right things that people should be doing.

COMMISSIONER ARSERIO advised that regardless of whether it was in the City's Charter or not, the Florida State Legislator passed a law which stipulated that if there was cause, Floridian City Commissioners could fire the CoP but there would be a due process including a hearing.

Discussion ensued.

VICE MAYOR SCHWARTZ read an email from a resident referencing a blind turn with double lines pertaining to parking.

CITY MANAGER CALE CURTIS said it sounded like there should not be cars parked there but he would review it.

MAYOR RUZZANO referenced hiring and firing of the two respective Chiefs and said that it was passed overwhelmingly and explained why he was against putting this back on the ballot. He also likened the City Commission to a board of a company and that the biggest part of their budget was 70% that went to public safety which he said included the Police/Fire Chiefs and he believed that they needed to be accountable for that. He said that there were comments about the last City Commission meeting being a mess but informed their board was not allowed to talk behind closed doors. He only knew a handful of people being fired within his 12 years of service and compared the work in government to the private sector. He received a letter saying that previously, there was not a CoP fired. He highlighted the City's Tree Giveaway event and discussed the MAC meeting. He congratulated Fire Chief Lorenzo and referenced his son going to boot camp.

COMMISSIONER SIMONE said that Florida Power & Light Company's (FPL) new representative was scheduled to attend the MAC meeting to talk about hurricane preparedness.

4) CITY MANAGER'S REPORT

CITY MANAGER CURTIS highlighted that the Fire and Police Departments were hosting Project Autism. He advised that they were working on the referendum language for the revenue bonds for their utility projects which would result in Ordinances and Resolutions coming back to the City Commission meetings in the next month or so.

FINANCE DIRECTOR, ISMAEL DIAZ, gave a brief summary pertaining to the annual Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA). He advised that the Finance Department received the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award which gave evidence to their stake holders of a transparent informative and high-quality budget presentation.
