

Summary and Resume

RMA has hired Mr. Jim Anaston-Karas (Karas), whose resume (attached) demonstrates relevant education and qualifications, experience and achievements to administer the mission of the MCRA.

Among other qualifications Karas has applied his decades of experience and Master's degree in urban and regional planning to manage three offices in the public and private sectors with budgets (operating, capital and projects) larger than MCRA, to manage diverse community planning project teams, and to work effectively with twelve Florida CRAs.

Karas has met with each Board member to further explain his qualifications, discuss improvement of MCRA operations, future direction and goals.
