

Proclamation

WHEREAS, libraries strive to meet the changing needs of their communities, including providing resources for all ages and backgrounds and bringing services outside the library walls; and

WHEREAS, libraries offer a broad range of print and electronic materials, expert assistance in research, reader's advisory, e-government, and children's services as well as programs vital to jobs, health education and other needs; and

WHEREAS, the library helps individuals in our community make informed decisions by promoting unrestricted access to information and serving as a center for life-long learning; and

WHEREAS, libraries bring together community members to enrich and shape the community; and

WHEREAS, libraries continue to grow and evolve in order to provide for the needs of every member of their communities; and

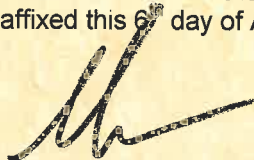

WHEREAS, libraries, librarians, library staff, the Friends of the Margate Library, and supporters across America are celebrating National Library Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tommy Ruzzano, Mayor of the City of Margate, do hereby proclaim April 10 – 16, 2016, as in the City of Margate, and encourages all residents to visit their local library to take advantage of their resources and services and recognize all they do to make our community a place of excellence.

National Library Week

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Margate to be affixed this 6th day of April 2016.

TOMMY RUZZANO, MAYOR

Vice Mayor Joyce W. Bryan, Commissioner Lesa Peerman, Commissioner Joanne Simone, Commissioner Frank B. Talerico
