

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The 2018 National Women's History theme, Never the less she persisted, Honoring Women Who Fight All Forms of Discrimination Against Women, and those who will follow, and to acknowledge the courage, determination and steadfastness needed to move history forward; and

WHEREAS, 2018 is also the 39th anniversary of the Women's History Movement and the National Women's History Project, and presents the opportunity to honor women who have shaped America's history and its future through their tireless commitment to ending discrimination against women and girls. Through this theme we celebrate women fighting not only against sexism, but also against the many intersecting forms of discrimination faced by American women including discrimination based on race and ethnicity, class, disability, sexual orientation, veteran status, and many other categories; and

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of our Nation in countless recorded and unrecorded ways; and

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class, and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement; and

WHEREAS, American women have served our country courageously in the military; and

WHEREAS, American women have been leaders, not only in securing their own rights of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor movement, the civil rights movement, and other movements, especially the peace movement, which create a more fair and just society for all.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Arlene R. Schwartz, Mayor of the City of Margate, do hereby proclaim the month of March 2018, as in the City of Margate and call upon all residents to observe this by participating in programs, ceremonies and activities to foster an awareness of and appreciation for the contributions made by women which have benefited and improved society.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Margate to be affixed this 7th day of March 2018.
