Hello,

To answer your questions:

1. We currently also receive funding from the City of Hollywood and City of Miramar for schools in their cities.
2. We currently do not have a ReadingPals program at Atlantic West Elementary. If the Commissioners wish to use the money to hold the program at both Atlantic West & Margate Elementary, we can split the 30 first grade spots between both schools. We would need to sit down with the principal at Atlantic West to discuss the program and get buy-in.
3. Yes, all City of Margate funds are used only at Margate Elementary in previous year. This year, we would use the funds for whichever Margate schools (elementary) that are decided upon by the Commissioners.

Thank you!

Good morning Ms. Lewis,

If you could please responds to the below questions, it would be appreciated.

1. Other than Deerfield or Margate, is any other city providing funding for the Reading Pals program?
2. I noticed Atlantic West Elementary in Margate is not on the list. Please confirm that there is not a Reading Pals program at that location.
3. Are all City of Margate provided funds only used at Margate school(s)?

Thank you.

Happy Monday!

I hope you are both doing well. We are officially in August, which means we are full steam ahead in getting things ready for the upcoming ReadingPals program starting in September.

I know the last conversation I had with the City of Margate was at the June Commission meeting and it was decided to wait and see what was going to happen in terms of volunteer programming at schools. As of July, we got the green light for in-person volunteering. Margate Elementary has expressed that they are very excited to invite ReadingPals mentors back into the school in the Fall.

Has there been any further conversation by the City Commission regarding funding the ReadingPals program? I want to be sure to let Mr. Schroeder and the volunteers know whether the program will be facilitated this year at Margate Elementary.

I am happy to answer any additional questions that the Commissioners may have. We are very excited for this year's ReadingPals program and I look forward to your response.

Thank you!
