9) QUASI-JUDICIAL PUBLIC HEARING FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE FOLLOWING ORDINANCE - FIRST READING:

- A. ID 2021-342 ORDINANCE - AMENDING SECTION 5.2 OF APPENDIX A ZONING OF THE MARGATE CITY CODE; AMENDING THE OFFICIAL ZONING MAP OF THE CITY OF MARGATE; PROVIDING FOR REAL PROPERTY LOCATED AT 603 MELALEUCA DRIVE, TO BE REZONED FROM R-1 ONE FAMILY DWELLING DISTRICT & R-3 MULTIPLE FAMILY DWELLING DISTRICT TO CF-1 COMMUNITY FACILITY DISTRICT TO ALLOW FOR MEDICAL RIGHTS; PROVIDING FOR REPEAL; PROVIDING FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

INTERIM CITY ATTORNEY TOLCES read into the record, the procedures on the Quasi-Judicial public hearing. He asked the City Commission if they had any disclosures.

COMMISSIONER CAGGIANO said that in the last six months, he had no responded to any person that had tried to discuss the topic. He also advised that he had not responded to any emails which he may have been in receipt of pertaining to this matter.

COMMISSIONER SIMONE said that in the past, she had spoken to staff and that she had received emails from residents.

COMMISSIONER RUZZANO said that he had spoken to staff, as well as many people, residents, the petitioner, Counsel and everybody.

VICE MAYOR ARSERIO advised that he discussed with staff in great detail and that the petitioner had reached out to him on a few occasions. He said that he had not visited the vicinity and wherever possible, he wanted to keep an open mind. He said that he had members of the Planning and Zoning Board (P&Z) contact him. He said that he had also discussed it with people contracted by the City.

MAYOR SCHWARTZ said that she had spoken to staff on a very limited basis, that she had been barraged by text messages by members of boards and she had read correspondence received from the City. She said that she had received a lot of text messages from the petitioner which she had not responded to. She asked the audience not to shout out from the back of the Chambers. She asked for CONSENSUS from the City Commission that the residents could yield their time to another person with the maximum time of six minutes of public discussion.

Discussion ensued.

CONSENSUS was given by the City Commission.

INTERIM CITY ATTORNEY TOLCES provided additional information on the hearing.

Discussion ensued on instructions and the objective of the hearing.

DEVELOPMENT SERVICES SENIOR PLANNER ANDREW PINNEY was sworn in by City Clerk Kavanagh. He referenced a rezoning application from Margate Care for Heroes where he formerly introduced into the record, the staff report with exhibits, all presentations and rebuttal presentations. He presented a PowerPoint presentation which covered the application, background history on the property, City processes and a review criteria for rezoning and an analysis that completed which would conclude with a recommendation. He concluded his PowerPoint presentation by saying that the Development Review Committee (DRC) recommended a denial of the development permanent based on an inability to determine that adequate services would be available to serve the needs of the requested zoning. He advised that the P&Z Board recommended approval with a vote of 3-1 on June 1, 2021. He also informed that staff recommended denial in accordance with the Code requirement that zoning changes on platted land should be approved upon determination that services were available to serve the development based on the DRC report reflecting the adequacy of services.

Discussion ensued on the building of an Institutional Group (I-2).

BUCHANAN INGERSOLL & ROONEY PC ATTORNEY KYLE B. TEAL, TWO SOUTH BISCAYNE BOULEVARD, SUITE 1500 was sworn in by City Clerk Kavanagh. He said that he was here to represent this veteran's care facility project for Margate Care for Heroes for the rezoning application. He read out the legalities of how the City should make their decision. He made a couple of corrections to the testimony provided by Senior Planner Andrew Pinney and advised that the City had the site plan since 2015 which had not changed as the property was good as it was. He also advised that he submitted a very detailed business plan which they had since updated and provided to the City. He referenced bad blood between the City and the petitioner.

MAYOR SCHWARTZ intervened and quoted a statement he made.

Discussion ensued.

BUCHANAN INGERSOLL & ROONEY PC ATTORNEY TEAL continued with his testimony. He introduced retired Lauderdale Lakes District Fire Chief Kenneth Kronheim, Traffic Expert Thomas Hall and Land Planner Wesley Blackman who would offer their testimony this evening.

CITY CLERK KAVANAGH swore in the applicants.

Discussion ensued.

CWB ASSOCIATES SENIOR PLANNER C. WESLEY BLACKMAN, AICP provided his testimony on behalf of the applicant and provided a PowerPoint presentation.

PRESIDENT OF THOMAS A. HALL, INC. AND TRAFFIC EXPERT, THOMAS HALL OF 1355 ADAMS STREET, HOLLYWOOD, gave his testimony and expertise on this matter.

CWB ASSOCIATES SENIOR PLANNER BLACKMAN continued with his PowerPoint presentation and testimony. He concluded his testimony by saying that in his opinion as a professional urban planner, it was consistent with the comprehensive plan and that it met growing and significant needs in a specific community of Margate and they needed to approve this.

Discussion ensued on the I-2 building.

BUCHANAN INGERSOLL & ROONEY PC ATTORNEY TEAL continued with his testimony.

A question and answer session was held between the City Commission, Buchanan Ingersoll Attorney Teal and Interim City Attorney Tolces.

KENNETH T. KRONHEIM, 1983 SEVILLE STREET was a witness for the applicant and said that he came to the City as a stakeholder in two ways; one as a long time Margate resident and that he was concerned about his family, his own safety and his property value and the other, as a retired public safety official. He acted as a witness for the applicant and provided his testimony.

BUCHANAN INGERSOLL & ROONEY PC ATTORNEY TEAL said that the average stay at this facility would be 90 days.

A question and session between the City Commission and Attorney Teal's witness team.

WEISS SEROTA HELFMAN COLE & BIERMAN INTERIM CITY ATTORNEY, SARAH L. JOHNSON intervened the question and answer session by reiterating that this was an application for rezoning and that it was not a site plan application.

The question and answer session with the City Commission and Attorney Teal's witness team continued.
