those units will go back in to the flex pool that the City maintains for other developments.

DRC Comments:

Tom Vaughn, approves the project.

Kevin Wilson, approves the project.

Dan Topp, had no comment.

Andrew Pinney, commented on the history of the Plat Note Amendment, stating that Resolution 17-070 on May 3rd, 2017 was approved with a built-in condition, that reads: "if parcel A-2 of the Celebration Pointe Plat is developed with fewer than one-hundred and sixty-eight (168) townhouses, the applicant shall file a second Plat Note Amendment to reflect the actual number of townhouses built". Mr. Pinney explained that with phase two under construction there is now going to be one-hundred and sixty (160) townhomes. He said that those eight (8) dwelling units are now going to recharge the Flex Zone 35 tables.

Diana Scarpetta, had no comment.

Mark Collins, asked if the round-about located at the entrance off of 441 will be maintained by the HOA? Ms. Pasch responded "yes". Mr. Collins asked if all the roadways within the property are private? Ms. Pasch answered "yes". Mr. Collins then stated that he approves this project.

Ashley McCarthy, approves this project.

Robert Massarelli, stated that all the code requirements have been complied with. He asked if all the property owners need to sign off on this Plat Amendment? Ms. Pasch responded that there will be a formal agreement that will be recorded in the County Public Records, and through that process notice can be provided to the property owners, however they will not have to join the agreement because they are under construction. Mr. Massarelli commented that he will be posing this question to the City Attorney and request direction on how to proceed. He then stated that with the board approval he will forward this to the Planning and Zoning Board.

2) GENERAL DISCUSSION

Mr. Massarelli informed the board that the next DRC meeting has a full agenda and urges staff to look at the documents as soon as they can.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:15 AM
