A motion was made by Vice Mayor Schwartz, seconded by Mayor Ruzzano, that this Resolution, should be discussed.

MAYOR RUZZANO explained why he nominated Annette Daniels and said that she loved animals. He expressed that this would be a huge tribute, an accolade and a nice gesture in lieu of her love for the City.

COMMISSIONER CAGGIANO disagreed and said that he was definitely against naming a Dog Park after a resident. He suggested that they should have a plaque in City Hall bearing Annette Daniels' name.

MAYOR RUZZANO responded to the Commissioner Caggiano's comments and advised that there were baseball fields and locations throughout Margate named after former employees of the City.

COMMISSIONER ARSERIO said that both City Commissioners made good points. He suggested putting some trees in the Dog Park as there was not enough shading and suggested that a plaque could also be placed on the tree.

VICE MAYOR SCHWARTZ believed that naming a Dog Park after a person was not the best of thoughts and suggested naming an area called the Annette Daniels Pavilion at the Dog Park, which would also provide shading for the residents.

Discussion ensued including providing an official name for the Dog Park.

CITY MANAGER CURTIS indicated that the large and small area of the Dog Park currently had a pavilion and he was unsure if they wanted to add more or use the existing one.

Discussion ensued on the size and quantity of the pavilions.

JOHN DANIELS thanked everyone for their kind words pertaining to his Mother and said that she truly loved Margate. He said whatever the City thought was fitting would be appropriate and his family would be more than honored.

Discussion ensued.

B. ID 2020-428 DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION - MAYOR'S CHOICE FOR MARGATE EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR.

MAYOR RUZZANO explained that pre-COVID-19, he had discussed with City Clerk Kavanagh about inserting the name of the Employee of the Year on a plaque. He said that he loved the City's employees.

COMMISSIONER CAGGIANO said it was a wonderful idea and that the Mayor and City Manager should make a list of five or six people that they think should qualify.

MAYOR RUZZANO explained that it was the Mayor's choice to select an employee.

Discussion ensued on how this award should be decided.

MAYOR RUZZANO continued to discuss this Item and read out the names from his list.
