2) PUBLIC DISCUSSION

CITY CLERK KAVANAGH explained the protocol for submitting a Public Discussion. He read an email from Michael A. Sirjue, 6811 NW 4th Street, who provided his opinion and ideas to the City's proposed designs of the welcome signs entering traffic into Margate.

RICHARD ZUCCHINI, 380 LAKEWOOD CIRCLE E thanked the Margate Police Department for attending a recent Lakewood on the Green Association Board Meeting. He also recognized a new Facebook page called Margate Firefighter Professionals and encouraged residents to read a factual chronology about that department.

MAYOR SCHWARTZ responded to Mr. Zucchini's comments. She also spoke about Ms. Jones trying to access the City Commission meeting.

JULIE JONES, 7871 NW 1ST STREET thanked the City Clerk's Office and commended Office Specialist III Isamar Viveros. She spoke about her experience when contacting the Police's non-emergency telephone number

CITY MANAGER CALE CURTIS apologized for the poor experience that Ms. Jones described.

MS JONES discussed another issue pertaining to illegally parked cars, Code Compliance and Waste Management.

MAYOR SCHWARTZ responded to Ms. Jones' comments.

ELSA J. SANCHEZ, 6930 NW 15TH STREET complimented Chief of Police Shaw, Officers Phanor and Druzbiak for attending a meeting with her Homeowners Association (HOA).

MAYOR SCHWARTZ responded to Ms. Sanchez's comments.

3) COMMISSION COMMENTS

COMMISSIONER ANTHONY N. CAGGIANO wished everyone a Happy St Patrick's Day. He explained that 60 year olds were eligible for Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) vaccinations. He thanked and referenced comments made by Mr. Zucchini and Ms.

Sanchez pertaining to Chief of Police Shaw and said that it was correct that he did take time out to attend community events. He said that in the entire State of Florida, under the Institute of Certified Records Managers (ICRM), there were only six Certified Records Analysts (CRA) and congratulated City Clerk Kavanagh for being one of them.

CITY CLERK KAVANAGH thanked Commissioner Caggiano.

COMMISSIONER JOANNE SIMONE congratulated and paid tribute to City Clerk Kavanagh for passing the required exams to be a CRA with the ICRM. She congratulated IT Director Wilbur and former Chair of the Employee Benefit Trust Fund (EBTF) who would be retiring on April 5th. She wished everyone a Happy St Patrick's Day and congratulated those staff listed on the Employee Anniversary.

VICE MAYOR ARSERIO congratulated City Clerk Kavanagh on his accomplishment of receiving CRA designation. He said that the Chief of Police Shaw did an incredible job, especially with Community Outreach. He thanked and congratulated the Fire Department pertaining to yesterday's very successful drill and referenced helicopters.

Discussion ensued on helicopters.

VICE MAYOR ARSERIO referenced COVID-19, requested people to continue wearing their masks and discussed a vaccine site at Broward College in Coconut Creek. He also referenced former Margate resident, Dr. Alice Hsu and said that he had received requests for naming a street after him and whether they could consider honoring him by placing a plaque in a pavilion, park or sports field.

Discussion ensued.

MAYOR SCHWARTZ congratulated City Clerk Kavanagh on his award and IT Director Wilbur on his future retirement. She referenced Zoom meetings and discussed a request by residents that City Commissioners should either consider being virtual on video meetings or attend in person. She emphasized the importance of residents being able to see their representatives doing City business. She asked City Clerk Kavanagh to display pictures pertaining to problems involving residents' bulk pick-up and said that it should be addressed. She asked for CONSENSUS from the City Commission to bring this up and have a conversation about it.

CITY MANAGER CURTIS agreed with Mayor Schwartz and said that the pictures displayed was not the intention of bulk pick-up and allow residents to place waste three days before collection. He said that unfortunately, there were a few residents seemingly taking advantage of the situation. He advised that he had tasked Department of Environmental and Engineering Services (DEES) Solid Waste and Recycling Coordinator to investigate if it was in compliance with the City's Code and what they needed to find a solution to change it.

MAYOR SCHWARTZ wished everyone a Happy St Patrick's Day and sent good wishes to those who celebrated Passover and Easter. She said that she would like to pull Item F. from the Consent Agenda.

CITY CLERK KAVANAGH thanked the City Commission for their appreciation for his educational effort for the City of Margate.

CITY ATTORNEY JANETTE M. SMITH echoed Mayor Schwartz's comments on the upcoming holidays and wished everyone a Happy St Patrick's Day. She referenced

Mayor Schwartz's comments pertaining to ideas and suggestions and gave them the option of either doing this at the next meeting but advised that it could be part of the conversation this evening but recommended keeping the Ordinance.

Discussion ensued.

4) CITY MANAGER'S REPORT

CITY MANAGER CURTIS recognized City Clerk Kavanagh for attaining the CRA designation. He recognized IT Director Wilbur for 23 years of dedication to the City of Margate and said that he had been a tremendous resource and would be retiring on April 5th.

COMMISSIONER CAGGIANO apologized for not wishing IT Director Wilbur a phenomenal retirement and said that he would be missed.

CITY ATTORNEY SMITH congratulated City Clerk Kavanagh and wished IT Director Wilbur a Happy Retirement.

CITY MANAGER CURTIS announced that they planned to reopen Calypso Cove on April 11th to Margate residents, allowing a maximum of 100 guests at any time.

Discussion ensued on the reopening of Calypso Cove.

CITY MANAGER CURTIS announced that the Margate Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) was working on an entry way sign in the Winfield Boulevard neighborhood and also referenced luscious landscaping be installed. He informed that in late March, they would be hosting a groundbreaking ceremonial event to launch the commencement of the construction project for Fire Station 58. He advised that the City formed a collaboration between Coconut Creek's Broward College and the North West Focal Point Senior Center (NWFPSC) for seniors requiring transportation to the vaccine site.

Discussion ensued on transportation for the seniors.
